THE FEEL FREE ARTISTA

LIFE IS CREATION, CREATION IS LIFE

ARTISTA

The central concept of my work is the exploration of inner freedom in all its conceivable facets.

Most of my pieces are characterized by vibrant colors and unique painting and drawing techniques on canvas, paper, wood, and dessert plates. I find my greatest joy in the blank surface before me: creating something unique from nothing means surprising myself with the outcome—an unparalleled, almost orgasmic experience.

COCO LETTERS

THERE WAS THIS GIRL WHO WOULD ONLY FANTANIZE
ABOUT MEN SHE HAD SEEN IN THE
MOVIES. REAL MEN
WERE JUST TOO
REAL.

SLAYING

AWAKE,

AND ALIVE,

TO GIVE ALL

THE LOVE

I HAVE TO GIVE

BEFORE I DIE.

THINGS MIGHT NOT BE HOW THEY APPEAR
TO US BUT STILL THAT'S HOW THEY APPEAR TO US.

MY HOPE
THAT CARRIES A WHITE DOG.
KNOCK-KNOCK:
COME BACK
...
PLEASE.

I DON'T

WANT

TO

VGE -

DO YOU?

I THINK HARDER.

IF YOU'VE SEEN IT
ALL, PUT ON SOME GLASSES.

I grow up in an environment where mothers wish their daughters were invisible. Within my family, it's preferred to silently endure and complain about the neighbors rather than change things. I have a childhood where, at the age of 9, I have already undergone four heavy surgeries, each lasting for hours. My insides are cut open, worked on, and stitched back together.

Almost 40 years later, friends call me an "energetic bundle," enemies a "maniac," because I obsessively draw, write, work, and collect academic titles and other qualifications. All of that: liberation blows. It is my way of finding myself. Sure, I often drive those around me crazy with it. But what remains constant in every phase is that I break free from the conventions of my upbringing and become more myself day by day. I cannot do it differently than I do.

I also cannot become the person I am without my creative expression. Already in early school, I eagerly write in my daily diary, keep my sketchbooks and pen with me all day, and now, as an adult, I have a part of my art studio in my self-converted van to keep it mobile. I start to write and create art by simply doing it, forgiving myself when an art piece is not as I intend. My strong will to not give up helps me.

Creation is life; life is creation.
